

cap. 21. 2. 36/34.

At the Election of a Baron to serve in Parliament, for the Town and Port of Dover, in February last past.

SIR Edward Spragg had One hundred fifty and three Votes, was returned and admitted into the Honourable House of Commons,
where he sate during that Session.

Mr. Thomas Papillion had One hundred thirty seven Votes, and was never returned.

The business is before the Committee of Elections and Priviledges, to be heard on Thursday the fifteenth of this Instant January; where your Honour is desired to be present.

The Corporation prays for a New Election,
Sir Edward Spragg being dead, 1673.
